— 16 year old participant

"I'll never forget the first day I left my son at Nate's Place. I felt very comfortable, that it is a safe place. My son's life has changed in positive ways and my family's too. He keeps busy doing things he likes and works together with parents, family and all the people around him to understand how he is feeling. The people at Nate's Place work hard to make progress and save lives. They are loved as family members. At Nate's Place everything works together. They understand mental and emotional health and the effect of doing drugs. I wanted to share with you how my son improved. I know your help is very important and valuable. Thank you very much for all you do!"
